

July 1, 2006

I have observed John Crooks to be a man of character and vision during the past year. As a member of the school board, John will help provide an atmosphere in which honest discourse can take place. As a result, student achievement will always be at the center stage. Please join me in supporting John Crooks as he will represent the best of Cobb County.

Andy Steinhauser, Ed.S.

TEACHER, Walton High School

U.S. Government teacher at Walton High School for 16 years.